to be of a serious character unto a text days ago, when he suddenly grew worse and rapidly declined.

He was in his seventieth year, and was a native of Richmond, having spent his life in this city, and was one of her wealthlest citizens, being possessed, probably, of more than $1,000,000. He was a lawyer of great ability and figured in many important cases before the State and City Courts in past years. He has not practiced, however, for several years, preferring to give his whole attention to his large estate. Mr. Cannon was a man his large estate. Mr. Cannon was a man of fine literary attainments, and was noted as a charming conversationalist and Shakespearean scholar. Mr. Cannon leaves a wife and three children besides a brother, Mr. Henry G. Cannon. The funeral will take place at To clock this afternoon at the First Pres-byterian church. The Bar Association will meet at noon to-day to take suitable action in regard to his death.

INFORMATION DESIRED

By the Treasury Department as to Bank Laws in This State.

A communication has been received from Assistant Register Herry H. Smith, of the Treasury Department in Washington, directed to Mr. Cazneau McLeod, private secretary of Governor McKinney, wherein the writer states that he desires to receive a copy of the existing laws in regard to the establishment, regulation, and supervision of State banks and banking institutions in this State. He adds that in most of the States these laws are printed in pamphlet form, and the laws on the subject have been published by the officer in charge, or having supervision of State banks, etc. If this could be furnished it would be not only a help to the department, which desires to furnish the information to Congress in relation sirable document to have among the records of the State.

The laws in question are to be found in the Code of Virginia for 1837 and the Acts of Assembly prior to that date, but have not been printed in pamphlet form.

THE DIRECT TAX.

Very Few Applications are Being Made for the Refunding of the Money.

Colonel William P. Smith, the commissioner appointed by Governor Mc-Kinney last year for the distribution of the direct tax money in the city of Rich-mond, has so far paid out about $40,000 to those who could prove to be in the posto those who could prove to be in the pos-session of just claims. During the past few weeks, however, Colonel Smith has not received a single application, al-though he still holds about $5,000 awaiting the owners.

The law enacted by the Legislature pro ided that the expenses of the distri-bution should be deducted from the amount to be paid out, but the interest of the total amount accumulated from the amount when the loney was paid over by the Federal government, up to the time when the law in regard to the distribution of the tax money went into effect, was sufficient to provide for the expenses involved.

In some instances at the time when the direct tax was levied, in certain counties of this State, some of the property was confiscated for the non-payment of this tax. In order to have these amounts refunded special legislation will be re-quired, and the General Assembly will be asked, during the coming session, to
